Week of October 25th

Red Ribbon Week is this week: It's that time of year when we celebrate making good choices. Here are this week's themes:

- Monday- "Follow Your Dreams" - Pajama Day
- Tuesday- "Drugs are SO OUT of style" - Retro Day
- Wednesday- "Put a Cap on Drugs" - Hat Day
- Thursday- "Team Up Against Drugs" - Wear Sports Gear
- Friday- "Scare Away Drugs" - Wear Your Halloween Costume

Homework

Reading: 20 minutes/day

*Home Reading books are due in class on Thurs ****

Math:

Mon. - Mod. 3, Lesson 13 (pg. 113)

Tues. - Mod. 3, Lesson 15 (pg. 141)

Wed. - Mod. 3, Lesson 16 (pg. 145)

Thurs. - Mod. 3, Lesson 17 (pg. 149)

Friday, Oct. 29th: The students will be able to wear costumes to school on Friday. Students should not bring weapon-like props nor wear inflated costumes, as they do not fit in the classroom environment. We will have Halloween-themed centers from 10:10-12:00 on Friday. Please send in nonperishable items as soon as they are available. Non-perishable items should be sent in on Friday morning. It will be very exciting day for the students.

Things to Remember:

- There is no school next Monday, November 1st - (Teacher In-Service Day).
- The Walk n' Roll Walk-a-thon is next Friday, November 5th (Shirts will come home next week).
- The TL Book Fair is November 8th - 12th (more info to come).
